

BEAR FILM

HI,
WE ARE

Bear Film is an experienced video production company based in the heart of Berlin. We produce branded content, commercials and documentaries. From the first line of a script to the final color grading – we will help you, to visualize your story.

We love to work all over the globe and have networks in the United States, Australia, and Scandinavia. Digital & physical brands, Venture Builders & Consulting agencies are among our clients.

WHAT'S YOUR STORY?

At Bear Film, we always find the right aesthetic for your project using the latest camera technology. We think outside of the box and break the barriers of the medium. Our diverse team of producers, directors, tech journalists and social media experts carry a deep love for all things digital and think online first. Our approach always derives from the main question: What is your story and how can we tell it in the best way possible.
